ANTIOCH

The Woman's club met at the club room Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Fording as hostess. The paper by Mrs. McClelland and Mrs. Reed on "Are Strenuous Outdoor Exercises Detrimental to the Growing Girl?" was excellent. The girls of the junior high school came down for the lecture. Mrs. Fording was presented with a beautiful bunch of carnations, the occasion being her birthday anniversary. Cake and coffee were served.

Friday the Woman's club accepted the invitation of the Alliance club to meet with them and about twenty responded to the invitation, taking the Burlington by storm with their club yell and enthusiasm, but Antioch asks to be excused from any criticism—we don't get away often. The afternoon at the club will long be remembered. Mrs. E. B. Penney, state president, talked along the lines of club work and entertainment. After the social half-hour the ladies of Antioch were entertained at the different homes of the Alliance clubwomen.

Saturday afternoon Mrs. F. H. Smith entertained at a shower for Mrs. Fred V. Smith of Glendo, Wyo. Lunch was served, consisting of fruit salad, chicken sandwiches, cake and coffee. Guests present were Mesdames A. L. Anderson, Hunsaker, J. W. Wilson, H. G. Wilson, B. E. Hoffland, M. E. Johnston, Charles Bovine, L. A. Hobbs, Ted Myers, T. H. Briggs, Frank McFall, Ed. Ozmun, William Conner, and Misses Klingaman, Hoffland and Smith.

Thursday evening Miss Opal Russell, district deputy president of the Rebekah lodge, and George Gadsby, D. D. P. of the I. O. O. F., installed officers for the ensuing terms. Officers installed were: Lillian Wilson, N. G.; Pearl White, V. G.; Margaret Klingaman, P. N. G.; Ella Douglas, secretary; Anna Hoffland, treasurer; Emma Graham, warden, and Anna Hoffland, conductor. Odd Fellows officers installed were: F. H. Smith, N. G.; Mr. Dove, V. G.; R. R. Wyland, secretary; Ed. Ozmun; H. J. Wilson, P. N. G. After the ceremonies, lunch was served and the teams returned to Alliance at a late hour.

Thursday invitations were sent out by a committee of two to the many friends of Henry Miller, telling them to meet at the home of J. M. Litteras, thence to proceed to the Miller home. Each guest was given instructions as to what to bring for lunch. The surprise was complete and most successful. Dancing was indulged in to a late hour and a most pleasant time reported.

Miss Hoffland and Miss Stowell were dinner guests at the J. W. Wilson home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Messeramith are rejoicing over the arrival of an 8 1-2 pound boy, born Sunday morning. Harvey Myers was in Antioch last week buying furs for the eastern markets.

UNUSUAL OPERATION BY COLUMBUS SURGEONS

COLUMBUS—An unusual operation performed at the Evans hospital on Mahlon Bonner will be watched with considerable interest. Two years ago Mr. Bonner was in an automobile which was struck by a U. P. passenger train. He received a compound fracture of his right forearm, the bones protruding through the flesh. The ends of the bones never knit and finally it was decided to attempt to correct the condition by grafting a piece of bone in it.

An operation, said to be the first of its kind in Columbus was performed. A piece of bone was taken from his right shin, the ends of the useless bone in the arm trimmed back and this new bone inserted. He rallied nicely from the operation. Mr. Bonner sued the railroad company for damages at the time, but the case was decided against him and he never received a cent for his injuries.

LEXINGTON JUDGE HANDY WITH FISTS

LEXINGTON—J. F. Neslund, police judge, doctor and preacher of Cozad, appears to be some all-around man. He is acquiring the reputation of being Cozad's heavyweight champ. It is reported he arrested one young Jones on the charge of using profane language on the streets of the judge's city. The young man was haled before his honor and drew a $50 fine.

O. C. Jones, the lad's father, then made a call on the judge and informed him that he came to administer a whipping.

Judge Neslund invited him in and it is reported he threw Jones over the table a couple of times and had Jones in the corner at his mercy going to be turned loose.

Mrs. Neslund's efforts to remove her versatile spouse from the top of his opponent were in vain. She called in W. G. Adams, a neighbor, who after some pleading, succeeded. It is reported that Jones was in the county seat to consult legal talent.
